FEAR RUM RIOT IN MASSACRE CITY

Thibet Bandits Control Big District

AMERICAN PARTY IN DANGER

Ferocious Tribesmen Still Hold Missionaries In Walled City

EFFORT TO REACH TERRITORY FAILS

Failure of Troops to Battle Invaders Mystery to War Office

(By United Press Leased Wire) PEKIN, Jan. 11.—The entire Batang district, around the city where in ten American missionaries and an undetermined number of foreigners are penned in peril of starvation or capture, is held by ferocious Thibet tribesmen, according to the latest war office reports.

Efforts to establish communication with the Batang city today proved unavailing.

The war ministry is doing its utmost to learn of the fate of the Americans and foreigners and also to find out why the Batang defense troops, which numbered 500, withdrew so mysteriously upon the approach of the Thibetans, who poured over the border from their mountain retreats last week.

The Batang municipality recently expelled all Thibetans who entered the city. They came as merchants and mendicants, but many of them are believed to have been spies.

A group of missionaries which had intended proceeding to Batang have been held at Yunnan, sixty miles away, awaiting developments.

The American missionaries reported in Batang were M. H. Duncan, his wife and sons, M. H. Parry, wife and three sons; all of the Foreign Christian Missionary society and J. B. Morse and wife of the United Christian mission.

Batang lies in the extreme western part of the Sze Chuan province, some 1500 miles west by southwest of Pekin, near the Thibet border.

FIND SHIP ADRIFF WITH CREW MISSING

(By United Press Leased Wire) PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11.—The schooner Levi W. Ostrander, a figure at North Pacific ports, which was sold recently to Chinese interests, was found mysteriously adrift several hundred miles off the Chinese coast, with all sails set and flying distress signals, but with no one on board, according to the story brought here by Captain Tinn, master of the West O'Rourke, who arrived here today.

An investigation of the affair is being made by the Chinese government. Tinn said he believed the vessel was out on her first cruise for Chinese interests. The vessel was built at Tacoma in 1917 and owned until recently in Seattle.

SCHOOL BOOKS AND BOOZE
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—George Dudley and Harry Spears, 16, carried school books under their arms and bottles of liquor in the back pockets of their knee-length trousers, according to dry officers, who arrested the boys for bootlegging to their fellow students.

Boost Salary Of Philadelphia Police Chief In War On Crime

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—There was no pause today in "Old Glimet Eye" Butler's anti-crime offensive here.

Without a break in his stride, the gaunt, impetuous marine commander, sent his blue coats against the wavering ranks of law breakers who had rather anticipated a breathing spell from the new director of public safety's intensive warfare.

Eight heads off—four lieutenants and four acting lieutenants under suspension—such was the penalty paid by

Dig Up Shell of Old Boat In Excavating For N. Y. Structure

Buried for more than 150 years, the shell of an old boat was uncovered recently by excavators on the site of the new New York Telephone company building. Hand-made nails held the wood together.

WOMAN IN $5000 OIL LOSS DUE TO TRANCE, IS CLAIM

Claiming that she was defrauded of $5,000 by an asserted fake oil promoter after she, with the aid of divine power, had "located" oil under a thirty-acre orange grove owned by J. J. Mueller, residing between Santa Ana and Orange, Hilla Vachs, Hindu woman lecturer on the occult, drew attention to the local ranch today with charges she filed in Los Angeles against R. H. L. Noaks, the alleged promoter.

The Hindu woman was one of several women who were declared to have been victimized by Noaks to the extent of from $2,000 to $3,000 each.

Among the others named was Julie Brown Stroud, writer living at Laguna Beach, who was said to have invested $2,400 with Noaks in a scheme to develop oil on the Mueller ranch. The development, it was said, never materialized, the result being a grand larceny charge against Noaks.

Goes into Trance
Taken into custody at San Diego Noaks was jailed in Los Angeles on the strength of the story told by Hilla Vachs.

This story was to the effect that Noaks, who represented himself to be a former federal judge in Alaska, authorities said, told her that he had a lease on the Mueller ranch.

The Hindu woman said that before she met Noaks she exercised her occult powers while walking over the ranch and became aware that there was oil under the land. While in a trance, she said, she told the owner of the property that there was oil under his grove and that she would like a share in it.

Officials of the Standard, Union and Shell Oil company, refused to hear her claim regarding the oil seriously, she said, and would not start development operations.

Claim No Lease Made
Then, she said, she met Noaks and was impressed by his proposal to form a company for the development of oil on the Mueller ranch. She and the other women, it was said, invested in the Universal Producers Syndicate as the company was called.

The complaint filed against Noaks declared that he had no lease and that he did not use the money collected from the women for drilling, as it was said he promised to do.

Noaks' wife was arrested on a ranch near Ventura and was brought to jail in Los Angeles to face the same charge on which her husband is held.

Improves Service TO HELP VETERANS
(By United Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The United States Veterans' bureau has been reorganized on "sound business principles" and is ready to "get down to work," General Frank T. Hines, director of the bureau, announced today.

Sweeping administrative changes effective January 15, involving the shifting of some division heads and the possible curtailment of clerical personnel at a future date were announced.

Under the new system major matters of planning and policy are entirely divorced from the problems of opinion. The reorganization was endorsed by the United States bureau of efficiency.

The city council is with Butler. They raised his salary from $12,000 to $15,000—a pleasing vote of confidence at the end of his 48-hour offensive.

Asks $10,000 To Fight L. A. Smallpox

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—A $10,000 appropriation was asked of the city council today by Dr. L. Howard, city health commissioner, to carry on the fight against a smallpox epidemic now prevalent in the city. Five thousand dollars was granted a few weeks ago.

Sixty cases of smallpox are now in the Detention hospital, Dr. Howard said, while fifty persons stricken by the disease are quarantined in their homes. There have been no fatalities and all cases are mild ones, the physician said.

COOLIDGE PUTS OVER PROGRAM ON TAX BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—President Coolidge's first test with congress on a matter of policy resulted in a complete victory for him.

This was the interpretation put today on the action of the house Republican caucus which last night by an almost unanimous vote, gave tax reduction the right-of-way over the soldier bonus.

The caucus ordered the ways and means committee to report the Mellon tax reduction program to the house by February 1 and after that to take up the bonus bill.

The nearest bonus advocates came to victory on anything was when the caucus by a bare three votes, 97 to 94, refused to put house Republicans on record as promising both bonus and tax legislation at this session. There is now assurance among bonus supporters that the soldier measure can be passed over the president's veto.

A week ago it seemed certain that the bonus would sweep all before it and might even displace temporarily the tax program. But administration leaders from President Coolidge down argued so strongly and the pressure from "back home" is so tremendous for tax reduction that there never was any question at last night's caucus but that President Coolidge's demand that taxes come first would be satisfied.

Predicts Victory For Bonus Forces
CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—The adjusted compensation bill for world war veterans will be enacted at this session of congress, despite the vigorous fight against the measure, John R. Quinn, California, National commander of the American Legion, said here today.

Quinn is here for a conference tomorrow with past commanders of the legion. Legion policy matters including the compensation act, are to be discussed, Quinn said.

Bandit Gives Up To Florida Posse
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 11.—Bill Ashley, son of John Ashley, "king" of the outlaws, who was killed in a pitched battle with sheriff and civilian posse, surrendered in the swamp lands of the Everglades today.

John Ashley Jr., the last of the robber gang, still at large, is expected to be trapped in the dense jungles late today, Sheriff Baker, leader of the posse, declared.

UPHOLD PLAN SAYS SOVIET TO ASSIST OBREGON SUPPORTERS ARE 'NUTS'

Committee Postpones Action on Harding Anti-Arms Sale Plea

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 11.—Federal troops scored an important victory in the state of Hidalgo today, driving rebels under General Cavazos from Pachuca to Concepcion. The Obregonist forces were commanded by General Garcia, who occupied Pachuca at the head of his men, after a battle in which 100 rebels were killed or wounded.

(By United Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Action on the Fairchild resolution to write into law the "Harding doctrine" of no sale of arms to foreign powers was postponed indefinitely today by the house foreign affairs committee.

Chairman Porter said the committee was virtually unanimous in deferring action on the resolution introduced by the New York congressman as a result of the government's sale of arms to the Obregon government of Mexico.

Fairchild himself voted for postponement, Porter said, after the circumstances of the letter written by the late president to the secretary of war was explained.

A memorandum by Secretary Hughes stating that Harding's letter was intended to prevent foreign powers in time of peace from building up large armaments from America's surplus war supplies was read to the committee by Chairman Porter.

"Obregon, the eighth president of Mexico since the abdication of Diaz, has shown by word and deed his good faith toward the United States," said Porter, "and the committee felt that the United States should aid him in putting down the present insurrection."

FEDERALS LAUNCH TWO DRIVES AGAINST REBELS
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 11.—The military situation appeared reassuring today. Three columns of federal troops under General Martinez were advancing against the rebels on the east front, while in the west troops began a great drive after President Obregon had received them.

The president was expected to return to Mexico City tomorrow or Sunday. The financial situation was relieved by reports foreign oil companies would pay one million pesos production tax for December to the federal treasury.

The government continued its campaign against foreigners accused of meddling in Mexican politics. Five Spaniards were expelled today from San Luis Potosi under the famous article 33 of the constitution.

PROTESTS RUM RAID ON VISITING SHIP
SAN PEDRO, Jan. 11.—Local federal prohibition agents today are awaiting action on a protest made by officials of the Empress of Canada, British steamer, which was searched for liquor by two San Pedro police officers, who arrested a Chinese member of the crew for having several bottles of rice wine in his locker.

Capt. S. Robinson, commanding the big steamer, took the matter up with federal officials here, declaring that the "unwarranted boarding of his vessel" during its first stop at the local harbor constituted what he thought to be one of the most outrageous acts that he had ever heard of in his long career as a sea captain.

District Federal Prohibition Agent Charles F. Galling said that no charge will be placed against the arrested man.

WEDDING OF PRINCE
TOKIO, Jan. 11.—The wedding of Crown Prince Regent Hirohito, future Emperor of Japan, and Princess Nagako Kuni will be solemnized January 26, two weeks from tomorrow, it was officially announced today.

The wedding was to have taken place last October but was postponed because of the general upheaval following the disastrous earthquake of September.

The wedding will be characterized by simplicity and inexpressiveness, it has been made plain by spokesmen for the imperial household.

The pomp which usually attends weddings of the royal family has been vetoed by Prince Regent himself. Hirohito has pointed out to his advisers that Japan needs money for reconstruction more than the young couple does for the ceremony. No more will be expended than absolutely is necessary.

The betrothal of the beautiful princess to the empire's future ruler has met with universal approval from the people of Japan.

WOULD EXTERMINATE HAWK
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—E. W. Hadley, San Francisco bird lover, today offered a bounty of $2 for each hawk killed within a radius of thirty miles from San Francisco. "Hawks should be exterminated," he said, "because they are killing the robins and gold finches."

Steamer Will Take Church To Pago Pago

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—When the liner Buford leaves here next month, she will carry a Catholic church consigned to Pago Pago, Samoa.

The church arrived here yesterday—knocked down—having been ordered from an Eastern construction firm by Catholic missionaries in the Samoan islands. On arrival at Pago Pago it will be uncrated and erected by native converts.

DARING BANK BANDITS GET BIG AMOUNT

Five Negro Thugs Hold Up Kansas City Bank Officials and Flee With $42,000.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 11.—Five negro bandits held up two officials of the Main Street bank here today and escaped with $42,000 in cash.

C. J. Haake, cashier, and Frank H. Lodge, teller, were transferring the funds from the First National bank.

They had arrived at the front door of their own bank, which is located near the Nineteenth street police station which is located near the Nineteenth.

The bandits escaped through a maze of traffic, driving past the Union station, near the scene of the holdup, at high speed.

COOLIDGE CLUB TO BE FORMED ON TUESDAY

Headed by J. S. Smart, wholesale grocer and member of the library board of this city, eleven prominent Santa Anas today issued a call to voters favoring Calvin Coolidge for President to meet at the city hall here Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of forming a Coolidge for President club.

Those who signed the call were Smart, W. P. Menton, A. J. Lasby, C. A. Miller, J. C. Metzgar, L. J. Carden, J. E. Liebig, W. L. Grubb, C. H. Chapman, John W. Tubbs and John Nichols.

At the meeting Tuesday night delegates to a congressional district meeting to be held at Riverside Saturday, January 14, will be elected.

At the Riverside meeting two names for delegates to the national convention will be proposed.

STRICKEN WRITER TAKEN TO COUNTRY

(By United Press Leased Wire) HOLYWOOD, Jan. 11.—Recovering steadily from the nervous breakdown which has kept her confined to her residence here for several weeks, Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond, famous song writer, left today for her country estate, "Grossmont," near San Diego.

Although the composer's condition is much improved, members of her household and physicians have agreed that she will undoubtedly recuperate much more rapidly among the quiet surroundings of her rural place. Just when she will be well enough to take the ocean voyage which has been prescribed for her is still indefinite, her secretary said.

FUNERAL FOR PASTOR
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Funeral services were to be held here this afternoon for the Rev. Hazen P. McKusick, 83, former Baptist minister and educator. He taught for years in San Bernardino, Norwalk, Darien and Maryland, coming to Los Angeles six years ago.

"30" BULLETINS
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Public hearings on the Mellon tax bill will be opened Monday by the ways and means committee. Chairman Mellon will undoubtedly be called before the committee, Green said, but he is not likely to be the first witness. Green hoped to wind up the hearings in a week.

Believe Body Found On Channel Coast That of American Airman
(By United Press Leased Wire) LONDON, Jan. 11.—A body believed to be that of the American aviator Lawrence Sperry who disappeared last month, while attempting to fly his famous "flying airplane" across the English channel, was washed ashore today near Rye, Sussex.

Sperry, celebrated for his stunts and experiments in the realm of aviation, had been flying his baby airplane in England, assisting in the political campaigns at the time of the general elections. He decided upon a cross channel flight and last was seen by a fisherman winging his way towards France, high above the channel.

The next day, wreckage of the "flying plane," one of the smallest used in practical flight was picked up but there was no trace of the airman.

The spot where the body was believed to be Sperry's was washed ashore today is some distance to the westward of where he made his flight but the strong channel tides might have carried the body to and finally landing it on the Essex coast.

HERRIN IS SCENE OF TROUBLE

200 Heavily Armed Citizens Ready For Outbreak, Is Report

AUTHORITIES RUSH TO QUELL UPRISING

Order Justices to Revoke Permits to Carry Arms In District

(By United Press Leased Wire) MARION, Ill., Jan. 11.—On a report that 200 men in Herrin—scene of the Herrin massacre—are heavily armed and "ready to riot," Deputy Sheriff John Layman of Williamson county and Sam Stern, exalted cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan in this section, hurried to Herrin this afternoon to check any possible outbreak.

The report of brewing hostility at Herrin, a small mining settlement followed decision of Sheriff George Galligan to keep the three companies of state guardsmen in Williamson county "for a while at least."

The report of brewing hostility at Herrin, a small mining settlement followed decision of Sheriff George Galligan to keep the three companies of state guardsmen in Williamson county "for a while at least."

Captain Culbertson, personal representative of Adjutant General Carlos Black, instructed Layman to order every justice of peace in Herrin to revoke all permits to carry weapons. Hundreds of permits were recently issued, it was said.

MARION, Ill., Jan. 11.—With an agreement reached on liquor enforcement in general, Williamson county's "booze war" simmered down today to a fight between Glenn Young, "Prohibition Czar" and the forces of Sheriff George Galligan over raids on saloons and homes in the county. Three companies of state troops are still stationed here and at Herrin. Sheriff Galligan will not ask for their recall for a day or two, it was said.

Samuel Stern, Ku Klux Klan cyclops and chairman of the Williamson county board of supervisors, promised co-operation with Sheriff Galligan.

Future warrants for liquor raids will be issued by Galligan and Stern instead of Young, whose militant leadership of "flying squadrons" of Klansmen under federal deputization, without the knowledge of the local authorities brought on conditions that caused Galligan to ask the government to send the militia.

Young declared he would retain leadership of the Klan raids and would continue them "with or without federal authorization."

John Layman, Galligan's trusted deputy, calling together several five Herrin residents in whose homes and establishments liquor had been found, laid down the ultimatum that all bars must be removed from saloons.

Young was charged for the third time with felony today in a group of warrants sworn out by Alex Ruggeri, baker of Herrin, who charged larceny and assault.

Ruggeri swore he was yanked from his bed by Klan raiders under Young and forced to watch them enjoy a feast of his fresh bread and cheese.

Stokes Loses In Effort to Dodge Paying Attorney

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—When W. E. D. Stokes failed to get his divorce from Helen Elwood Stokes, he stopped payment on three checks totalling $15,000 payable to Max D. Steiner, who prosecuted his case. This was revealed when a judgment by default was filed in the county clerk's office here in favor of Steiner for $15,155.90, the amount and costs on three checks made out by Stokes to Steiner.

Steiner declared that when he presented the checks the bank refused payment and he entered his suit for judgment December 8.

The United States consumes two-fifths of the world's entire annual wood supply. Its share is about 22,500,000,000 cubic feet each year.

N. Y. Astir At Last Follies Talk; Youngsters Under 14 Give Plays

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Two important rumors have Broadway all excited. The first is that Flo Ziegfeld has produced his last Follies, the other that George M. Cohan is going to leave the theater flat on its back if the Equity closed shop is made universally effective. The "glorifier of the American girl" seems quite determined to cease production of the annual revue owing to the enormous cost. The last one is said to have run in excess of $550,000, and is struggling to make both ends meet with a weekly payroll of $25,000. In Cohan's case it seems to be largely a matter of principle. He is opposed to any "actors' union" and refuses to be dictated to.

So successful has been the engagement of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" in New York that Universal has extended its lease on the Astor theater for three months more. Simultaneously arrangements have been made to take over the Crescent theater in Brooklyn for a run. This is one of the few things in theatrical history that a Broadway hit has played anywhere within the metropolitan area at the same time it was still playing in its original house. "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" astounded wise showmen by shattering half a dozen marks for length of engagements in legitimate houses. It played seven weeks in Chicago, six in Philadelphia, twelve in Boston, five in Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, four in Baltimore and five in San Francisco.

The historic old Hippodrome blossomed forth in a blaze of glory last week when it re-opened under the management of B. F. Keith Follies, the other that George M. Cohan is going to leave the theater flat on its back if the Equity closed shop is made universally effective. The house has been entirely rebuilt and now compares favorably with any in the metropolis. There probably is no other theater in America so well known as this home of specialties. In the audience on the opening night were the governors of five states, Catholic and Episcopal archbishops, the mayor of New York, Margaret Wilson, daughter of the former President, and John McCormack, famous tenor, as box holders.

There are dozens of quaint theaters in New York—Little theaters, basement and garret theaters, Italian, Spanish and other national houses, but the latest is unique. It is for children only and they must be under 14 years of age. The actors are all youngsters. "Treasure Island" reveals some remarkable talent among the members of the petite cast. The house seats 700 and it is crowded at every performance. Clara Tree Major is the managing director. It is a real theater and not a fad of passing fancy.

General interest is being expressed in the plan to make Astoria, L. I., a second Hollywood. For many months rumors have been flying thicker and thicker that the studios would desert the coast for the east, but these seem well grounded.

Smiles as Death Near from Plung

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—"I thought I would just drop in on you boys," gasped Jason Coburn, 45, lineman for the fire and police signal system, today, as he fell 25 feet from a telephone pole to the street, landing in front of two policemen.

Smiling, with a fatal optimism which was the wonder of those who rushed him to the hospital, Coburn heard receiving hospital physicians pronounce both his legs and arms broken and skull fractured. He will probably die, physicians declared.

Old Oregon Trail Gains Popularity

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11.—The people of three states want to completely restore and keep in condition the Old Oregon Trail. The people of the inter-mountain communities are said to be highly in favor of keeping the road open the year around, thus assuring them of the all-year automobile outlet to the coast. The fact that the Oregon state highway commission has kept the road open over the Blue Mountains this winter holds a strong appeal to the people of Utah, Idaho and Oregon.

The Old Oregon Trail association's president, Walter E. Meacham, has just returned from a tour of Utah and Idaho and reports great interest abounds in those states over prospect of the famous old trail being more than a historic landmark.

Idaho people are equally desirous with Oregonians that a uniform design be used in marking the entire route of the old trail.

Ninety per cent of the school slates manufactured in the United States are used in foreign countries.

KLAN BARS FORMER LEADING OFFICIALS

(By United Press Leased Wire)
ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 11.—Colonel W. J. Simmons, founder, and E. Y. Clarke, former imperial wizard, were banished from the Ku Klux Klan in a proclamation today by Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard, according to information made public here by Clarke.

Clarke indicated he and Colonel Simmons had received copies of the proclamation signed by Dr. Evans and by seventeen grand dragons of the "invisible empire" in conference in Washington. The alleged conference has been in progress several days, an official in Clarke's office said.

Favors Delay In Probe Over Loan

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 11.—Edward B. McLean, Washington millionaire publisher, today asked postponement of his examination by Senator Walsh, Montana, regarding a loan of $100,000 McLean made to former Secretary of the Interior Fall, who leased the Teapot Dome Naval Oil Reserve to Sinclair interests.

McLean said he wished to consult his counsel, J. Wilton Lamhart of Washington, who arrived this morning on the same train with Walsh.

Attempts to Raze Prison With Head

He was taken to Alameda county hospital in a dying condition.

SAYS MOVIES HAVE PLACE IN COLLEGE

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—Accurate, historical motion pictures are splendid means of disseminating knowledge in a painless manner, says Professor H. E. Bolton of the history department of the University of California.

Bolton was speaking of the pictures of the type recently released by Yale University. "In ten or twenty years," Prof. Bolton declared, "I believe that movies will be a part of the unconscious education of the public; the best sort of education, as it combines pleasure. The motion pictures will be particularly successful in impressing on students facts that are generally termed 'dry.'"

"To make students remember routes taken by early explorers seems to be one of the most difficult duties of the teacher. If we can have two reel pictures visualizing the routes and the topography of the country, the students would easily remember not only the route but the explorer."

In some of the eastern universities motion pictures are being used to instruct medical students. Formerly, when a surgeon wished to show how an operation was performed he would have to wait until he had the patient.

With the motion picture camera focused on the operation, however, the film of all details may be taken and then run off in the class-room any number of times.

Bring Dredger to S. F. From Canal

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—A giant Panama canal dredger has been brought to San Francisco to deepen and widen the Golden Gate.

The work will cost $500,000 it is estimated, and will be started sometime before the end of the year.

The entire project will take two years," according to Colonel Herbert Deakyme, war department engineer. "The main channel will be deepened seven feet, from the present depth of thirty-three feet to forty for a distance of 2000 feet across the bar."

The dredger which will be used for this work arrived on the scene several weeks ago and will commence work as soon as its coal furnaces can be replaced by oil burners.

Lad only Graduate of School's Class

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 11.—The honor of being the sole member of the Galilee high school's graduating class was extended Gordon Ellison.

Gordon Ellison alone occupied the stage during exercises held in celebration of Galilee 1923 graduates. He alone received the salutatorian and the "graduating class" and he alone answered for that class.

The music, speeches, decorations and large audience of parents—all were for Gordon Ellison.

Then, having passed the eventful day, Ellison will have to play the part of alumni for the class of 1923. At future alumni meetings he will stand at the banquet table and announce that "As the graduating class of 1923 I wish to say,"

Ellison came to the Galilee school on a transfer from a high school in El Paso, Texas. The Galilee high school being a new institution, Ellison found himself far in advance of the other pupils and in reality will represent the first graduating class of the school.

Auto Record Set For Year in Ore.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 11.—The increase of autos in Oregon has been quite noticeable records of registration show. The increase last year was more than 30,000.

Secretary of State Kozier declared that at the time of closing registrations on November 30 a total of 165,042 automobiles had been registered as against 134,566 in 1922. Kozier estimates that the 1924 registrations will run as high as 180,000 or approximately one car to every four citizens of the state.

Blames Red Rose In Divorce Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—All red roses are not the symbol of love—this one brought divorce. Mrs. Rosey Barrese, pretty and young, was enroute to an Italian cafe with her husband. She threw away a red rose that had begun to age. A man, a stranger, noticed her casting the flower to the sidewalk and picked it up.

Joseph Barrese, barber, her husband, noticed the stranger's flirtatious smiles and was so deeply impressed that he chided his wife severely and frequently about it.

Thus runs Mrs. Barrese's story. Judge Deasy granted divorce.

Girls' Slouch Is Laid to Wax Art

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Wax models in the shop windows are "a positive menace to proper posture among high school girls," according to Dr. Herbert R. Stolz, state director of physical education.

"The mannikin of today, with its sagging chest, hips thrown forward and with lowered head—otherwise the debaute slouch—is imitated by fully 60 per cent of California high school girls today," the physician declared.

Such figures would be hidden in the store windows of the shops, or straightened into correct postures, if Dr. Stolz had his say in the matter. Likewise would the sinuous female who is always on the fashion plate—she too, would be banished or straightened into a military stiffness.

San Diego Bandits Boast To Victim

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 11.—Two bandits, who boasted to their victim that they were the "Yellow Kids," wanted throughout Southern California in connection with numerous holdups, late yesterday held up the jewelry store of A. O. Snyder and escaped with diamonds and watches valued at about $5,000.

COUNTLESS HAPPY ON RETURN TO AMERICA

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Countess Guenther Von Bernstorff, daughter-in-law of the former German ambassador to the United States and regarded as the most beautiful woman who ever married into the German nobility, is back home after ten years—and thoroughly weary of all things German.

"I am tired, desperately tired," she said, "with all I have gone through, and now I wish to rid myself of the yoke of being a German. I am here to get back my citizenship and my money. I have been hard up since the war and now I want to have a good time."

The countess was formerly Marguerite Vivian Burton Thomason. She is a chestnut blonde and despite her three marriages is still in the thirties.

The contracts were distributed among Pacific coast and Eastern car building firms. The cost involved about $10,000,000.

DEATH THREAT SENT FAMOUS FILM STARS

(By United Press Leased Wire) LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Search for Harry J. Dunlap, notorious "badger bandit," was quickened today by information that the much-wanted criminal had threatened the lives of Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, film stars.

The home, "Pickfair," in the exclusive Beverly Hills district, is under heavy guard of deputy sheriffs. Fairbanks has doubled the reward outstanding for Dunlap's arrest and aided in having his picture and description thrown on motion picture screens throughout Southern California.

Dunlap is said to have threatened the famous movie folk after he was denied employment at their studio. He asked for work, stating that he was "a wonder with a gun."

Dunlap, known as the "badger bandit" because most of his crimes have been committed while wearing an officer's star, and as the "foothill bandit," since many of his offenses have occurred along the Foothill boulevard, is suspected of having recently killed William Jacobson, Pasadena, when he sought to shield his finances from the criminal's attack.

RANCHERS WIN OIL ROYALTY DISPUTE

L. W. Neswinder and other ranchers in the vicinity of Yorba Linda were admitted to share in royalties from four wells drilled by the General Petroleum corporation on lands of their neighbors, A. Y. Yerrington and Lester Keller under a decision by Superior Judge RAY. Williams. It was learned today.

Judge Williams made his ruling in favor of Neswinder following a three-day trial of the suit brought by Neswinder to validate a community lease given to the petroleum corporation.

This lease had been abandoned by the petroleum corporation, which subsequently secured two other leases, one with Yerrington and the other with Keller. Both the Keller and Yerrington properties had been included in the original community lease and when four wells were developed on their land, the community lessors brought action to enforce their royalty rights under the first lease.

The court held the community lease valid; also the two subsequent leases. The decision was retroactive, dating from last October 1, so that the defendants are required to pay back royalties. Yerrington thus finds his royalties from the one well drilled on his place reduced to the extent of approximately $118, it was said.

Keller's reduction amounts to considerably more, it was understood, three wells having been drilled on his property.

Dines, oil operator and Miss Normand's maid, at a New Year's day party, was today postponed for one week by Justice Walter S. Hanby. Justice Hanby denied the request of Attorney C. B. Conklin that Greer's bail be reduced from $10,000 to $2500, under the plea that his client could post the smaller sum, but could not raise the $10,000.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Official postponement of the preliminary hearing of Horace A. Greer, chauffeur for Mabel Normand, film comedienne, was expected to be authorized in justice court today.

Greer is scheduled to appear for hearing on the charge of having shot and wounded Courtland S. The regular meeting of the Lowell P.T. A. was held in the kindergarten room yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Price, the efficient president of the association presiding. After a program of songs, recitations and dialogues by school children the business session was held.

Mrs. Price announced that the Lowell P.T. A. had received the membership prize offered by the city federation and also had sent in the most subscriptions to The Child Welfare Magazine.

A program on thrift offered a very interesting talk by Mrs. Kellogg of Garden Grove, the county president. Mrs. Charles Ryel discussed the subject from a mother's viewpoint and Miss Granholm from the teacher's viewpoint. An informal and interesting discussion followed.

Mrs. Harry Leipsic, city president, gave a short talk.

Over 100 members were present and Miss Grandholm's room was awarded a beautiful picture for having the most mothers in attendance.

During the social hour, mothers of second and third grades, headed by Mrs. Hinton and Mrs. Gidcomb, served tea and wafers.

VERSATILE ATHLETES

In the great showing made by the Michigan eleven of 1923, Jack Elliott, Irwin Uteritz and Harry Kipke played a prominent part. It is a rather interesting fact that these three football stars also carry a large portion of Michigan's baseball burden. Elliott is varsity catcher, Uteritz stars at shortstop and Kipke is a brilliant outfielder. Scouts say that Uteritz is the best baseball prospect Michigan has turned out since the days of George Sisler.

A very delightful meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Whist club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Naylor at Newport Beach.

At the conclusion of a series of interesting games, Mrs. A. A. Wood was found to hold high score and was awarded a beautiful fruit bowl, while second trophy went to Miss Lawrence, a lovely cake dish.

The card tables were then utilized for the service of a delicious three-course collation, the members present including Mmes. O. V. Noble, I. A. Mechem, W. C. Kelly, A. A. Wood, L. L. Smith and Miss Mildred McNeal. The guests of the club were Mmes. Knight, Spellacy, Scott, Boss, Stearns, Rowe and Miss Lawrence.

Daughters of Confederacy

Meeting yesterday with Mrs. Lavonia Mayfield, the Emma A. Sanson chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy completed their plans for the entertainment of the Confederate veterans at the annual Robert E. Lee dinner to be held on the southern general's birthday anniversary, January 19.

The parish hall of the Church of the Messiah has been selected as the scene of the dinner which will be a noonday event. All Confederate veterans of the city will be honored guests of the Daughters, while all southerners who wish to attend the dinner may purchase tickets of Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Ray Stedman or Mrs. Alice Overshiner. The price will be a very nominal one when the menu of rich and delicious old southern dishes is considered.

Following the discussion of dinner plans yesterday afternoon, a letter from the president-general was read, describing the national meeting in Washington in late November and telling of the reception to the delegates which Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the president, staged at the White House.

At the tea hour, Mrs. Mayfield, assisted by her niece, Mrs. Sam Hill, served a dainty refreshment menu. Mrs. T. J. Haughton asked the Daughters to be her guests at the February meeting, at her home, 429 South Sycamore street.

Quilting Club Holds Merry Meeting With Orange Hostess

The Auld Lang Syne Quilting club held a delightful all-day meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Frank V. Maroney, 484 South Grand street, Orange.

The members came early and completed a quilt for the hostess. At noon a lovely dinner was served. Those present besides the hostess and her two daughters were Mrs. Olive French, Mrs. W. O. Higgins, Mrs. H. Moberly, Mrs. LeRoy Valentine and daughter, Mrs. Frank Higgins, Mrs. S. M. Higgins, Orange; Mrs. Oscar Freck and daughter, Anaheim; Mrs. Fred Hampton and son, and Mrs. W. B. Hampton of Santa Ana.

D. of V. Presidents Enjoy Merriment of Christmas Party

Reminiscent of the recent holidays were the decorations and many phases of the entertainment enjoyed by members of the Past Presidents' club of the Daughters of Veterans when they were guests yesterday of Mrs. George S. Smith at her lovely home, 916 Spurgeon street.

For it was a slightly belated Christmas party which, with all the durrty of the holidays ended, was particularly enjoyable. Lunch was served at noon and the long table around which the guests assembled, bore a pretty Christmas tree whose candles harmonized with the flaming poinsettias decking the rooms. The tree bore ample harvest of Christmas fruits for each member had prepared one gift to add to the store and these were distributed as the luncheon hour drew to a close.

Four courses were served after which the session was devoted to business for a brief initiation when Mrs. Nellie Parker, the tent's president for 1923, was inducted into full membership in the Past Presidents' club and Mrs. Floss La Bouny, new president, was received as honorary member.

Election of officers resulted in Mrs. Margaret Robertson being named as president while Mrs. Elizabeth Adams was elected secretary.

The afternoon was spent socially in chat and needlework as the members reviewed the happenings of the past year. They recalled with pleasure their December meeting when Mrs. Eva Bell entertained with a fried rabbit luncheon whose deliciousness was a pleasant memory.

The same guests were present at both occasions and included in addition to yesterday's hostess, Mrs. George S. Smith, Mesdames May Thomas, Elizabeth Adams, Eva Bell, Leonore Ward, Margaret Robertson, Florence Phillips, Floss La Bouny, Louane Leach, Esther Gardner, Emma Chapman, Nellie Parker, and two guests, the Misses Edith Ward and Nina Robertson.

Calumpit Auxiliary

Tuesday, January 15 at 8 p. m., the Calumpit camp and auxiliary will hold a joint public installation of officers at G. A. R. hall. Mrs. Lizzie Crapo, junior vice-department president and her staff of officers of Long Beach will install the new officers for the auxiliary while a Los Angeles officer will be present to install the camp officers. Refreshments will be served during the social hour which will follow the ceremonies.

Frills and Fancies For Fussy Frocks

Frills were always highly favored with womankind. From the days of panniers and lace ruffles to the present strait little tubular frock, the airy feminine frill has always had its adherents.

No prettier presentation of the favorite could be devised than the apron-front dress sketched. The frills are applied in three tiers which are given an extra flare by the fact of the frill being pleated rather than ruffled. Of course there is no belt in front because it follows the princess' lines, but there is a narrow belt tying in the back.

It's a style that deserves two-fold commendation—for its smart Princess lines and for its new use of the popular frill.

Side Drape Is Still Popular

Popular as it has been for the past season or two, the side drape with its graceful lines, remains dear to the hearts of femininity and was never more fashionable than at present. Not exactly the same side drape perhaps, having been given just a touch of difference, but retaining all its good lines and style.

The dress sketched shows the tendency of smart frocks to be slightly fitted at the waist, a tendency emphasized by the little horizontal pleats on one side just below the long shawl collar. The side closing is more popular than ever.

This model is being worn both in silk and wool materials, sometimes trimmed with fur or embroidery.

Household Economics

Sunny France offered interesting material for talks which were thoroughly enjoyed by Ebells' second section Household Economics members when they met Wednesday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Brown on North Broadway.

Associated with Mrs. Brown as hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Shauer and Mrs. Fred Cole and the trio presided at a delightful little luncheon for which the pleasant apartment was decked in white roses and asparagus plumosus fern. A number of unusual dishes added charm to the menu which ended with the serving of French pastries.

Miss Lella Watson and Miss Mary Wakeham as guests of the section were introduced as speakers for the afternoon, each talking on France where they have spent much time.

Marked by a delightful informality, the talks of each one were of such a nature that their hearers felt a keen understanding and knowledge of France and her people and customs than they would be able to gain from the most exhaustive reading.

Miss Watson, who spent many months with a French family of culture and charm, spoke more particularly on the intimate family life with which she had come in such close contact. Miss Wakeham spoke of the country in general and gave a vivid picture of conditions since the war.

There were eighteen members present and a little guest group including the two speakers, Mrs. J. W. McCormac, Ebells' club curator, Miss Wozencraft, a house-guest of Mrs. Cole and Mrs. W. A. Graeter, sister and house-guest of Mrs. H. J. Selway.

Music Section

When Ebells' Music section meets Monday afternoon, January 14, at 2 o'clock with Mrs. John Wehrly of 819 Spurgeon street, it will be to hear a program on the origin of music with Miss Edith Patten in charge.

Miss Patten will present a paper on "The Origin and Principles of Music" after which Miss Charlotte Dresser will read an article on "Ancient Music and the Dawn of Harmony" garnered from the many fine volumes of musical history which her library affords.

The second paper will be illustrated by little melodies including quaint old Hebrew songs such as "The Song of Miriam" and "Lament of the Children of Israel in Captivity." These will show the introduction of harmony.

The program offers an unusual amount of interest to students of music and a large attendance is anticipated.

Accorded Much Praise In Missions Play

Pointing a remarkable lesson to the large crowd of men and women gathered for the Missionary society program recently at the First Baptist church, "Serving Two Masters," a splendidly presented play, today was still the subject of comment among the many who saw it.

Directed by Harriet Owens Enderle, the play was a simple little story of the regeneration of a woman's soul through the influence of a young college girl, daughter of a missionary to the Chinese. But the manner in which it was given, almost approached the professional and made a deep impression on all who saw it.

The three leading characters were excellently assigned, Mrs. H. H. Reeves playing the part of the selfish society woman, trying to serve two masters, Mrs. Enderle as Janet, the young college girl and Mrs. Frank Harris in a delightful character bit as a platform lecturer of the old school. The three, together with Mrs. Brubaker, one of a group of college girls, had all had much previous stage experience.

Mrs. Arbuchon was sweet and lovely as the gentle mother of "Mrs. Van Horn" (Mrs. Reed). Mrs. T. R. Trawick as the president of a culture club was most convincing in her role and the three college friends of Janet as played by Mrs. Roach, Mrs. Brubaker and Mrs. Sundstrom, were charming.

Much praise was accorded the committee, Mrs. F. L. Austin, Mrs. Enderle, Miss Lula Minter and Mrs. George Ash for their work in arranging the entertainment which was the missionary society's offering on the program of the all-day meeting of the various women's societies of the First Baptist church.

Mrs. Brubaker plans to present the same little play in Whittier in the near future with Whittier women filling the roles.

LOS ANGELES—Digging for hidden treasure valued at $30,000 has occupied the time of Deputy Sheriff Stensland, Weir and Investigator Clarence Hull during the past three days. They have been searching for bandit loot believed to be buried near Bell. The

Lenience Request Decision Put off In S. A. Girl Case

Superior Judge Z. B. West today deferred for one week a decision upon the application of J. W. Tiffin, local youth, for probation in connection with a statutory offense against a 10-year-old girl.

The court decided to delay the matter for further investigation into reports of previous similar offenses by Tiffin.

When questioned by the court today regarding such offenses, Tiffin made denial. He was then confronted by Assistant Manager W. H. Adams of a local theater, who said that Tiffin had been pointed out to him at the theater as the youth guilty of annoying a girl in the theater about a year ago.

Booze Possession Case Trial Asked

Trial of Rudy Goetz and L. M. De Mittle, of Delhi, charged with possession of liquor, had been set today for February 26 at 10 a. m. following demand by the defendants for a jury trial in Justice J. B. Cox's court.

Goetz and De Mittle pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice Cox late yesterday.

Talbert

TALBERT, Jan. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and son, Ernest Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Day and son, Howard, came Sunday from China to the Ben Rogers home. Mr. and Mrs. Brown remained as guests of the Rogers and the remainder of the party motored on to Newport for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wells and family of Lomita were Sunday evening supper guests at the home of Well's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gilbert.

Miss Louise Wardlow who has been on the sick list was sufficiently recovered to return to high school Tuesday.

Mrs. D. C. Gilbert who has been suffering from an attack of flu which was followed by a relapse is at last able to be up.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulhemus and baby son of Los Angeles were Sunday evening visitors at the S. E. Talbert home.

Mrs. S. E. Talbert's nephew, Earl Carter, his uncle, Jim and Claud Carter and a friend, Verne Howard of Long Beach were recent visitors at the Talbert home.

They brought the good news that Will Carter, Mrs. Talbert's brother-in-law who has been very low with inflammatory rheumatism is now steadily improving.

Irene Callens, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Callens has been on the sick list but was much better at the last report.

Mrs. Harry Harper spent Sunday in Santa Ana with her mother, Mrs. Lena Patterson who has been very ill with the flu.

deputies started to dig after a prisoner in the County Jail had given them information which had the appearance of authenticity, that Paul Rivera and Fred Rubio, now at San Quentin, had buried the proceeds of several hold-ups near Bell. So far their efforts have been unrewarded.

ARCADIA—An almost unanimous election added $1,000,000 to Arcadia's property valuation which registered voters of the city had voted on the annexation proposition that brought 175 acres into the city. The land included is a part of the original Clara Baldwin Stocker ranch, and while highly valuable, had only three residents.

SAN BERNARDINO—Marking the first invasion of Los Angeles banking institutions in San Bernardino fields, the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings bank purchased the Farmers' Exchange National Bank, one of the city's oldest financial houses. Sale of the Farmers' Exchange was effected on the basis of $350 per share, said by stockholders to have been $100 higher than any previous quotations and indicating the desire of the Hellman interests to acquire a branch here. Fifty-one per cent, at least, of the bank's stock was sold and it is probable that more stock will be purchased at the same figure, approximately $320, 000 is involved in the deal. The Hellman bank now has branches in San Bernardino and Redlands.

SANTA BARBARA—William P. Hamilton, New York financier, who was married to Mrs. Theodosia Carlin in Santa Barbara several days ago, has purchased sixty-two acres of land between Montecito and Carpinteria for approximately $100,000, according to announcement made today. Reliable information that he will erect a palatial residence and improve the grounds has been given.

OXNARD—State Forester M. B. Pratt and J. R. Glendinning, State highway tree expert, both of Sacramento, were here recently conferring with members of the Oxnard Lion's club on the club's campaign to beautify Oxnard city streets and the highways leading to town.

HEMET—While exact figures at the post office are not yet available, it is known that the postal receipts for 1923 will exceed $15, 300, an increase of $200 over 1922. Hemet is next to Riverside in the amount of postal receipts, having exceeded Corona for the past three years.

CORONA—A happy event occurred at the Christian church, when members and friends who gave financial assistance in order that the mortgage might be lifted from the church building, gathered, and in an appropriate ceremony, burned the mortgage.

TRANS-U. S. AIR SYSTEM PLAN IS BARED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Plans for the establishment of a great system of transcontinental aerial transportation were disclosed yesterday when Lieutenant-Colonel William E. Gillmore, air officer of the Ninth Corps Area, returned to his headquarters at Crissy Field after attending conferences at New York and Washington. Development of commercial aviation and the creation of a vast reserve of trained flyers and of equipment for war purposes, are the two main objects of the scheme.

"After talking with civilians interested in aeronautic work," Colonel Gillmore said, "I can state that we shall soon see real development of commercial aviation, backed by people who have the thorough knowledge and financial standing necessary to accomplish their purposes. While I cannot go into details on the subject without breaking confidence, it is not too much to say that the services contemplated will extend to the West Coast."

Aid to Military Corps—"This project will be very important to the military service as it will build up a reserve of flying personnel and of equipment that would be of inestimable value in the event of a national emergency. "The air service is keenly interested in commercial aviation. Government support to such a project could be given without taking the form of a subsidy, by permitting the organization temporary use of Government fields and other facilities until they were in a position to provide their own."

"The development of a nationwide system of airways and landing fields, with their accessories, which the project would require, will be of great importance from both the military and the commercial point of view."

Colonel Gillmore's statement strengthened the credibility of persistent reports emanating from authentic sources in the civil and military aeronautic interests that financial leaders have been prepared for some time to go ahead with the establishment of a nationwide system of air transport as soon as assured of obtaining Government support in the form of a mail contract.

It was pointed out that the carrying of the mails furnished the initiative revenues for the establishment on a secure footing of the pony express and later of the railroads.

It is believed that a contract for carrying the mails would not only give the needed financial encour-

REFORESTATION MEN LAUNCH NEW DRIVE

Acting on instructions from the Tri-County Reforestation committee, given at its seventeenth annual meeting at Riverside yesterday, Francis Cottle, chairman, today was preparing to communicate with Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon for the purpose of urging him to include protection for Southern California watersheds in his bill, recently introduced in congress, aiming for further protection of American forests.

Discussion of methods of protecting the watersheds of the mountains of Southern California and particularly those in Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties occupied virtually all of the time of the twenty-two persons present at the Tri-County Reforestation committee's meeting. Members of last year's committee all were reappointed. State Forester M. B. Pratt gave an address on "Forest Protection."

Orange county men present were S. H. Finley, M. Nilson and Fred Rohrs, Santa Ana; G. W. Sherwood, Fullerton; Alfred N. Saxton, Orange; J. J. Dwyer, Anaheim; A. Pierotti and J. W. Newell, Placentia.

WHY WOMEN LOOK 60 AT 40

With dark circles under their eyes

sallow complexions, drawn expressions, drooping shoulders, a lagging step, many women of forty have the appearance of women of sixty.

In many cases this condition is caused by overwork or neglect of such warning symptoms, as headaches, backache, nervousness, displacements, and irregularities which indicate ailments peculiar to women. If all women so afflicted would only rely upon Lydia E.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, it would restore them to a normal healthy condition, and the pre-mature signs of age will soon disappear.

LAST PRAYER WEEK SERVICE IS TONIGHT

The largest congregation of the series is expected at the First Baptist church tonight when the meetings being held here in connection with National Prayer week are concluded.

The Rev. J. A. B. Fry, pastor of the South Methodist church of Long Beach, delivered his sermon at the First Presbyterian church last night on "The Source of Power," taking as his theme the oft-repeated quotation from the Bible, "I can do all things through Christ."

"God has a work for each man to do that only he himself can perform," the Rev. Mr. Fry declared. "God never duplicates. He has work laid out for you in this school of life and if you do not do your part just that much will be lacking when the day of accounting comes."

MANY ATTEND LAST RITES FOR LAD, 6

Evidencing the sympathy of community, Santa Ana and Tustin friends of H. T. Brookbank and family, of Tustin, yesterday afternoon taxed the capacity of the

Smith and Tutill funeral chapel

here, when funeral services were held at 2 o'clock for Donna A.

Brookbank, 6 years of age, who died Monday following a brief illness with spinal meningitis.

The Rev. W. S. McDougal, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Tustin, conducting the services, consoled

the parents with the thought that their dear one had been called to eternal rest in obedience to the will of the Supreme Being.

"There is a Green Hill Far Away," was sung by Mrs. C. E.

Smith of Tustin, and "I Love the Sweet Story of Old" was sung as a duet by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Edgar Carswell.

Pallbearers were Clarence Trick-ey, Hugh Runnels, Francis Harvey and Everett Fitzgerald.

Many mourners followed the body to its last resting place in Fairhaven cemetery.

Division of property when that property is an automobile is a delicate, not to say awkward undertaking; so Peter Bernier, who admitted as much in a superior court suit on file here today, decided to employ another method to obtain his asserted half interest in a car that, he stated, being driven by his brother, Samuel P. Bernier, of this city.

Unable to determine which half of the car he owns and finding it impractical to split the machine in two, Peter decided to "go to law"

with Samuel, have the car sold and the proceeds divided.

This request was made of the superior court in an action filed through Attorneys L. A. West and

C. C. Downing.

Peter also requested appointment of a receiver for the automobile, pending its sale, to prevent what he said was rapid depreciation of the car and the consequent decrease in value of his asserted half-interest.

In addition he demands $337.75

from Samuel for the use of the car

by Samuel since last July. Figuring this to be worth $3.50 per day or a total sum of $675, Peter claims that he is entitled to half of that sum.

MAGNESIA BEST FOR YOUR INDIGESTION

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people who suffer, either occasional or chronically from gas,

sourness and indigestion, have now discovered a digestible diet, palatable foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead of

following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or two tablets of Eucrated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Eucrated

Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation,

and without the slightest pain or discomfort. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get pure Eucrated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach

PASTORS CLASH ON RADIO USE IN PULPITS

OS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Today's session of the Pacific Southwest Theological conference is expected to be marked by not a little caustic argument over the matter of delivering sermons by radio and using motion pictures to draw congregations.

The remarks of Dean Charles R. Brown at the opening session yesterday almost disrupted the conference. Standing in the pulpit from which the Sunday morning sermons of Dr. Carl S. Patton, pastor of the First Congregational church, are broadcasted, Dean Brown declared:

"Preaching by radio is ineffective because personality is needed to convince a spiritual message. A good deal of the preaching of today is deadly dull and I wonder sometimes that people go to church at all."

"Preachers are catching at everything to draw a crowd, even at motion pictures. I deplore them."

Urged on by his supporters, Dr. Patton went to the pulpit.

"Dean Brown talks about motion pictures like I did four years ago," he commenced. "I have used motion pictures for four years and I have never been a minister either who preached to 'dead wood.' With a motion picture I have produced an impression on people that Dean Brown or no other preacher can make without it."

Dr. Samuel J. Holmes, professor of zoology at the University of California, in an address last night before the conference, sounded a warning against race degeneracy.

"The nemesis of degeneracy hangs threateningly over the organic world, including humanity," said Dr. Holmes. "We need not expect to build a high-grade civilization out of a low-grade humanity. The fact that this nation is culturally flourishing does not mean that we may not be biologically degenerating."

Dr. Holmes predicted a dark future for America if religion and science did not co-operate in checking the birth of imbeciles. Insane and feeble-minded men and women breed more extensively than the more intelligent classes, he said, and the higher classes of people hardly produce enough children to keep their stock in existence.

"Whether the human race was evolved from ape-like ancestors or descended from perfect parents made by the Almighty from the dust of the earth is a mooted question. The significant fact is that we are here and we now recognize the possibilities of developing a stronger, wiser, better race."

Speakers for today's session of the conference include Bishop William Bell; Prof. H. L. Willett of the University of Chicago; Dr. Robert A. Millikan of the California Institute of Technology and Dean Charles R. Brown of Yale.

Dr. Hancock's Powerful Radio An Attraction

Being informed that the Duncan Sisters and the Topsy and Eva Company, now playing an engagement at the Selwyn Theater in Chicago, were to broadcast their songs Wednesday night from Station KYW, L. Green and W. J. Lansing of Los Angeles motored to Santa Ana to hear them over the powerful radio receiving set of Dr. J. W. Hancock. The concert was heard distinctly and was thoroughly enjoyed, from nine until eleven-thirty o'clock.

There are few sets in Southern California that can pick up Chicago at that time of night and Mr. Lansing and Mr. Green were advised in Los Angeles to come to Dr. Hancock's home if they wished to be sure of hearing Chicago. Needless to say they were more than gratified at hearing Chicago so plainly.

Speaking of the trip to Santa Ana, Mr. Lansing said:

"I could not find any one in Los Angeles who could assure me they could get Chicago at that time of night, and was glad to avail myself of Dr. Hancock's courtesy."

Yours truly,
W. J. LANSING.

Two Black Eyes Win Wife Decree

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Two black eyes, as a Christmas present, brought a decree of divorce and $50 a month alimony, to Mrs. Margaret Wildes, 205 Twenty-seventh street, in Superior Judge Morgan's court. William H. Wildes, carman for the Southern Pacific, came home Christmas night and in response to his wife's hints for a gift, struck her violently in the face, she charged. Wildes said that he gave all his money to his sister and was unable to pay alimony. When Judge Morgan ordered him to turn over his next pay check to his wife, Wildes objected that he would have nothing left for his maintenance.

"Then perhaps the city and county can maintain you in custody of a shelter, should you fail to pay the allowance," the judge replied, terminating the arguments.

Wife Disloyal as He Lay Ill, Claim

While he was in the hospital his wife went out with other men and when he remonstrated with her she would give him no satisfaction or promise to discontinue, John B. Menges alleged in a complaint for divorce on file here today in the superior court.

Menges, who said his wife, Leone Parker Menges, had been living with him until October 13, 1923, asked that a small son be given into the custody of Harry F. Parker, father of his wife.

L. A. Industrial Data Available To S. A. Chamber

Full co-operation and free access to the industrial records of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has been promised the Santa Ana chamber in its campaign to develop an industrial center here, J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the latter organization, stated today. He said that this promise of co-operation was given him by A. G. Arnold, assistant secretary of the Los Angeles body.

Several weeks ago the directors of the Santa Ana chamber authorized Metzgar to have made an industrial survey of this city. The assistance of Arnold, in the matter of securing a competent man to make the survey, was promised. Yesterday Arnold said that he had not been able to obtain a man competent to make the survey, but expected one would be available within a week.

His Conscience Troubled Him

"I know I have done wrong, please forgive me for not doing my duty and writing you before. I am thankful to God for the good remedy He gave you, and would not take $500 for the good the first dose gave me. I have been bothered for many years with gas in my stomach and indigestion, but since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two years ago, have had no such trouble. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 11.—Two women bandits, unmasked and armed with big black pistols and an over-supply of courage, held up one man in the very midst of the theater crowd here last night, robbed another in the residence section of the city and chased another to the doorstep of his home.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, W. A. Johnson, 161 North Union Ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Billy Evans SAYS

Nick Altrock is a great admirer of Connie Mack, while the tall leader of the Athletics thinks Nick is the funniest man in the world. Yet every now and then Nick takes issue with Connie's strategy and Mack resorts to repartee to uphold his end of the argument.

While Mack is seriously inclined, Altrock admits that the retort courteously handed him by Mack one day last season provided him with the biggest laugh of the year.

In a game at Philadelphia last summer with Washington as the contending team, the Athletics got away to a big lead and seemed to have the game cinched. Late in the game Washington began to hit and although Mack sent in two relief pitchers, Washington almost closed the gap between the two clubs.

The failure of several of the star pitchers of the Athletics to top the batting rampage of the Washington club failed to please the usually genial Mr. Mack. He was in no mood for jesting.

The Athletics' lead had been cut to a one-run margin and every member of the Mackian pitching staff with the exception of a rookie was in left field warming up, ready to be called. Noticing the young pitcher still on the bench Altrock, who was coaching at third, yelled to Mack:

"Say Connie, you better get all the pitchers out there, you will need them before the game is over."

50 MOTOR VEHICLE DEATHS IN COUNTY FOR YEAR

SUPERSTITION RIDICULED BY 'ROBIN HOOD' DIRECTOR

God of Omens Is Long Ago Ousted As Element In Choral Union Success

HARD WORK IS RULE

Cast Endeavors to Stage Perfect Performance, Leaving Luck Aside

"Have I any superstitions?" Ellis Rhodes, director of the Orange County Choral union, which will produce "Robin Hood," Reginald De Koven's famous opera, at the Yost theater here the night of January 22 and 23, laughed as he echoed the interviewer's question.

"Time was," he went on, "when I would not have looked through the peep-hole in the stage curtain and counted the house before a performance, for anything, for fear of offending the god of good luck and ruining the production. Other little superstitions also engaged me, years ago.

Sees Better Results "But that is all changed now. I realize, these days, that if you have attended to your details, if you have drilled your principals and chorus to the best of your ability and have impressed them with the vital necessity of being prompt with their cues and so on, then your performance should be a success.

"If it is not a success, then no amount of belief in omens would have altered that fact. You have only yourself to blame for success or failure.

"As for 'Robin Hood,' I think I can safely say that the Orange County Choral union's production will be fully as good as, perhaps far better than, some of the other offerings of this organization.

Emphasizes Work "I have left matters of superstition entirely out of consideration. All I have done is to work hard, and every member of the cast has done the same.

"Everything possible has been done to make the performance perfect, and the result of all the many weeks of patient work on the part of all concerned will be at once apparent to all who witness the performance.

"To stage an opera like 'Robin Hood' is no small task, as scores of theatergoers are doubtless aware. There are many disappointments during the period of rehearsals and there are certain to be difficulties of one kind or another. But all who are concerned in the production have their reward at last, in the applause of the audience and in the knowledge that they have done something to raise the cultural level of the community."

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN! Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts that have been or may be contracted by my brother, L. E. Byrd or Leslie Byrd.

R. R. Miller, county probation officer, from whom Artist Jack Fisher learns more about popularity contests.

RECEPTION FOR CHURCH SOLON IS TOLD

The Rev. William R. Sawhill of Seattle, Wash., moderator of the United Presbyterian assembly and one of the best known churchmen on the Pacific coast, today was nearing Santa Ana, where tomorrow night he will deliver an address, on his tour of the Southland that will take him to virtually every city of importance.

Hundreds of Orange county United Presbyterians, as well as members of other churches, are expected to attend the services, which will begin at 6:30 o'clock, at the United Presbyterian church here.

The Rev. Mr. Sawhill is scheduled to arrive in this city early tomorrow from San Diego, where he was to be a guest tonight. He will deliver an address at the Long Beach United Presbyterian church Sunday morning, leaving that city in time for services in Los Angeles Sunday night.

MABEL ROCKWELL SCHOOL OF DANCING, 17 1/2 E. 4th, announces beginners' class, ballroom dancing, Friday evening, 8:00 o'clock.

By JACK FISHER.

When in the course of human events it becomes possible to expose the past and present lives of well-known Santa Anas we feel that it would be indiscreet to pass up R. R. Miller, Orange county probation officer.

Speaking of popularity Miller is the original popular kid. Not only is he a man who is very popular with his friends, but he is also called upon to meet every one who is not immune from a heavy jail sentence.

Bootleggers and check-writers, alike, cry out for an introduction to Probation Officer Miller as soon as they feel the hand of the law on their shoulder.

So we dashed into Miller's office, ourself not to plead our case, but just to learn more of this popularity.

Is Missonian. Miller received us very kindly and seemed pleased to learn that we were not a bank robber with a touching story. When we told him we had no grief to let him in on he really seemed deeply moved and his stern face began to thaw.

After a great deal of questioning, Miller began to relate the story of his past.

He declared, "where I attended school and college. While in college I took a great interest in athletics and played on the college football team. I have always taken an active interest in young men's organizations, particularly the Y.

Since coming to this city he has been actively interested in all public works.

The list of law violators is headed by those who violated various city ordinances. There were 1695 such violators. Second on the list are violators of the state motor vehicle law. There were 971 automobile drivers arrested during the year for violation of various sections of the state law.

MUSCLE SHOALS OFFERS FLOOD SEC'Y WEEKS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Another offer for the Muscle Shoals power project has been received by Secretary of War Weeks.

Weeks described it as "tentative." It is understood to have been submitted in writing. He would not divulge the interests making it except to say that they are not connected with the group of Southern Power companies which submitted an offer yesterday.

The newest offer contemplates manufacture of fertilizer. Weeks said:

Those making the offer were said to be "highly responsible and with sufficient capital."

Weeks said no arrangements had been made for a meeting of the Federal Power commission to consider the offer yesterday by the Alabama Power company and associated concerns.

In congress submission of the new offers has renewed interest in the Muscle Shoals proposal. Efforts will now be made by supporters of Henry Ford's offer to get Ford to renew his proposals.

BANKER TELLS HOME BUDGET LISTINGS

Property investment is the only investment that is worth while on the monthly plan, E. B. Sprague, cashier of the Orange County Trust and Savings bank, told Lions club members, meeting at St. Ann's inn yesterday, in a discussion of "Thrifty."

The subject was offered as preliminary to Thrift week, starting Thursday of next week. O. H. Egge, chairman of the meeting, announced that the subject was introduced to the business men to call their attention to the coming week, in the hope that they might embrace the period for inducing some of their younger friends in starting systematic savings in the national week program devoted to the promotion of thrift.

"Thrift" often is sneered at as being miserly or niggardly, said the bank cashier. "It is not meanness, it is management."

54 of 100 Die 'Broke.' Giving well-known statistics a local application, Sprague said that of 100 boys 10 years old who may be picked from the schools of Santa Ana, thirty-six of them would be dead in fifty-five years, fifty-four would die "broke," six would be in what might be termed comfortable circumstances, three would be fairly rich and one would be very rich.

"Methodical savings leads to freedom of worry and increased comfort in old age," the speaker added.

Stating that the test of a man is his ability to save, Sprague said that a man with a wife and two children and earning $250 per month should divide his income monthly by spending $18.75 for life insurance, placing the same amount in other savings, paying $58.33 for food, $50 for shelter, $55.42 for clothes, $33.37 for home operations, and $35.42 for welfare, such as medical attention, education, charity.

Mellon to Insist on Rum Navy Fund

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Rum running alone is keeping alive violations of the prohibition law, secretary of the Treasury Mellon believes, and for that reason he will fight efforts of Budget Director Lord to kill a requested appropriation of $24,500,000 for fast ships to combat rum runners.

According to word brought here by Mellon, a number of new and interesting dancing numbers have within the past few days been added to the revue. One of these is "The Powder Puff Farmettes."

Final plans for the presentation of the "veterans' entertainment" here are being speeded. Officers are being selected from among members of the Forty and Eight who are volunteering their services. Programs are being printed. Scenes and property plots are being drawn up.

1922 RECORD IS TREBLED; SEES NEXT YEAR GAIN

Coroner's Report Majority of Pedestrians Killed Were Children

Deaths resulting from the operation of motor vehicles on the highways of Orange county in 1923 more than tripled the number of lives taken in 1922.

In revealing this fact today, County Coroner C. D. Brown ventured the prediction that 1924 would see an increase in the toll taken in 1923.

His annual report, just completed, showed that in 1923 fifteen deaths were laid directly to the operation of motorcycles or automobiles in this county, while last year an even half hundred lives were snuffed out through the operation of cars and motorcycles. With the prospect of an increase in the number of fatal accidents, Brown said he was cheered somewhat by the increasing co-operation now existing between enforcement officers and judges in an effort to reduce reckless driving and excessive speed.

Many Children Die.

"The majority of pedestrians killed in the past two years were children who were playing in the street," the coroner said. "I always did think that the majority of these accidents have been due to the drivers paying insufficient attention to the operation of the car and I still think that. Too many persons drive without any respect for the rights of others."

"However, when you consider the large number of people traveling our highways day and night I sometimes think that the fatal accidents are not any greater, perhaps than in any other line of business of the same magnitude. I feel satisfied that the safety campaigns, such as inaugurated by the automobile clubs and the railroad companies, will have a material effect in reducing accidents."

In the last two days of November and the entire month of December, 1923, Brown's records showed that ten persons were killed in automobile accidents, the record number of deaths for a similar period in this county. The latter part of December was not marked by any fatalities so that in reality the ten lives were taken in less than three week's time.

Method of Death Shown.

The first month in 1923 accounted for six deaths and a similar number were killed both in June and July of the same year. Those months ranked second to December, which Brown officially credited with eight fatal smash-ups.

In June three persons of the same family were killed. In July two of the same family died. Twelve persons were killed in 1923 through the collision of automobiles.

Four persons were killed while riding bicycles or motorcycles. Eight persons walking across street or along highways died when hit by cars.

Nine were killed when automobiles collided with steam or electric trains. Five deaths were laid to intoxication of the drivers.

Ten of the fifty killed were females.

There were no deaths resulting from the collision of motor busses and trains.

Brown's report showed that no woman driver had been held responsible for the death of a pedestrian in 1923.

"I am a single man and earned in wages $1,000, during 1923. Do I have to file a return and what form must I use?"

"You must file a return on the small form, 1040-A, although you will have no tax to pay. You are entitled to a personal exemption of $1,000.

"I am a married man, and have two dependent children. My salary in 1923 was $2,400, and my only other income was $110, interest received from a note. My taxes were $212. Must I file a return?"

"You will have a non-taxable return, but you must file on Form 1040-A, the small one. You are entitled to $2,500 personal exemption and $400 for each of your children.
Your taxes are deductible.

"I am married but separated from my wife. Both of us are wage-earners. Do we file separate returns and what personal exemption are we entitled to?"

"If you are living apart from your wife on December 31, 1923, you may file separate returns. If your incomes were derived principally from salaries or wages and not more than $5,000, net each, use Form 1040-A. As you are living apart from your wife both of you are classified as single persons, and entitled to a personal exemption of $1,000, each.

"My income in 1923 came from salary and from rents on several houses I own. It amounted in all to $3,400. I am married. What form shall I use?"

"You should file on the larger Form 1040. Taxpayers, any part of whose income, regardless of the amount, is derived from business or profession, farming, sale of property or rents, must use this form.

"Who must use Form 1040-A in making a return?"

"Form 1040-A is to be used by the taxpayer whose net income,
not in excess of $5,000, was derived chiefly from salaries and wages.
It may also include interest received.

"Who must use Form 1040?"
"Persons any part of whose income for 1923 was derived from business or profession, farming, sale of property, or rents, regardless of the amount of income, must use Form 1040. In all cases where net income was in excess of $5,000,
this form must be used.

"What form must the average salaried man or wage-earner use?"

"Form 1040-A, the small one, if the net income was $5,000, or less.

This form covers income from salaries and wages and interest received. It meets the requirements of the average man or woman working on a salary or wage basis.

"I am a stenographer, unmarried, and keep house and support my widowed mother. My salary was $2,100. Must I file?"

"Although you are entitled to a personal exemption of $2,500 as the head of a household, you must file a return. It will be non-taxable.

"Who must file a return?"
"Every married person whose net income for 1923 was $2,000, or more, or whose gross income was $5,000, or more, and every single person whose net income was $1,000, or more, or whose gross income was $5,000, or more, must file a return. The fact that, by reason of personal exemptions and credits, a person's income is not taxable does not nullify the requirement to file a return if the income equals or exceeds these specified amounts. Married persons who are separated are classed as single and must file returns if their net income was $1,000, or more.

turns of income were sent to persons in two forms, 1040-A and 1040 mailed to each taxpayer."

"Forms for filing individual returns who filed returns for 1922. It being impossible to determine this year the form desired by the taxpayer—whether he be a man whose income was derived chiefly from salary or wages, or from business, profession, or other taxable sources—the taxpayer received both forms, and is expected to select the form that will meet his income requirements.

"What personal exemptions are allowed?"

"The personal exemption for married persons whose net income in 1923 was $5,000, or less, is $2,500. If the net income was in excess of $5,000, the exemption is $2,000. The exemption for single persons is $1,000. Whether married or single, the taxpayer is allowed a credit of $400, for each person dependent upon him for chief support, if such person is under eighteen years of age or incapable of self support because of being mentally or physically defective. The head of a family—a person who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage or by adoption, is allowed the same exemptions as a married person.

"When must I file my return?"

"Do it now and avoid the rush which begins February 1. It will save loss of time and the inconvenience of standing in a long line of taxpayers waiting for their turn at the cashier's cage.

ity, amusements and gifts. He said every family head should operate on the budget plan with apportionments in amounts about as suggested.

Budget Lauded.

"Establish a budget and live up to it," urged the banker.
Declaring that money should not be spent in the purchase of something that is useless, the speaker said that everyone should save some portion of his earnings and that the savings should be invested in securities returning a fair interest or in property that will increase in value.

Money accumulates rapidly when it is placed on earnings, he said, and $36.30 invested monthly in a security that would return 6 per cent interest, in twenty-five years would create a fund of $25,000.
Victoria and Callen Yader, brother and sister, members of the Topsy and Eva cast playing in Los Angeles, entertained the club members with songs and dances.

Wife Is Termed
'Old Long Face',
Her Suit Claims

After a married life of eighteen years eleven months and four days with Harley M. Oliver of Fullerton, his wife, Mrs. Ethel M. Oliver, could stand it no longer and their parting of the ways was reached July 14, 1923, according to a complaint for divorce which Mrs. Oliver had on file here today in the superior court.

In her complaint, Mrs. Oliver asks for the custody of three children. An adjustment had already been reached regarding community property, her complaint said.

Oliver not only cursed her often and called her names, including
"Old Long Face," "Old Battle Axe" and "flunky," but he also refused to trust her with money for household expenses, Mrs. Oliver set forth in her complaint. In order to provide for her children she was often forced to borrow from her parents and neighbors, was one of her claims.

APPROVE STEEL SHAFTS.

Information has reached the outer circle that the much talked of steel shafted golf clubs are to be approved at the forthcoming meeting of the United States Golf association. The steel shafts, introduced to offset a growing shortage in selected hickory, have been under the ban of the golf fathers for two years.

spect and esteem of the entire county as a willing and tireless worker in all movements for the good of the county in which he

Miller is well-known locally for his histrionic ability, as he has appeared with the Community Players in several of their productions and is greatly interested in amateur theatricals. His most recent claim to fame is his election to the president's chair of the local Kiwanis club. Which proves our statement that Miller is the weasels waistcoat when it comes to a popularity contest.

SEEK RICH GEMS IN SEA HIDING PLACE

GENEVA, Jan. 11.—Wanted: a pearl fisherman who can find a complete string of superb gems at one dive.

It has been revealed that a necklace of inestimable value, once the property of the assassinated Empress Elizabeth of Austria, lies at the bottom of the Mediterranean.
It was submerged on the empress' instruction in order to regain its lustre.

A few days before her assassination an expert advised Empress Elizabeth to bury the necklace near the shore. The expert said this was the only plan by which it could regain its brilliancy.

The necklace was a wedding gift of the emperor to his bride, and among the most prized of all her possessions.

So she sent to a Cortu monk,
with instructions to hide it in the deep blue waters of the Mediterranean.

Aided by an old fisherman, the monk carefully buried the pearls in sand in a deep excavation near the shore. He took every precaution that none but the old fisherman and himself should know the hiding place. This took place in June, 1898. At the end of that year both the monk and the old fisherman died. It was long believed that their secret had perished with them.

It is now reported that the fisherman told a comrade where the pearls were buried and that eventually the necklace may be recovered from the sea.

Rural Mail Route
Service Extended

Mail delivery service has been secured by the Santa Ana post office for the residents of Highland street between Shelton and Bristol streets. The route of Rural Carrier W. R. Harvey, R. D. 6, has been changed so that in leaving the office the carrier will go directly to Highland street. About thirty-five families not now receiving mail delivery will be accommodated by this change in R. D. 6.

A change has also been authorized in R. D. 5, of which R. F. Elliott is the carrier, by which the Goode addition at Talbot will be given rural mail delivery.
The changes are to become effective January 16.

BAY CITY FOLK LEMON BODY TO DEDICATE NEW CHURCH ERECT PLANT
AT ORANGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The Church of St. Thomas the Apostle, the new Catholic church at Fortieth avenue and Balboa street, was dedicated with impressive services.
Most Reverend Edward J. Hanna, archbishop of San Francisco, conducted the formal consecration exercises, assisted by Rev. J. W.
Sullivan, pastor of the Mission
Dolores, and Rev. C. E. O'Neale, pastor of the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer. High mass followed the consecration, with Rev.
Patrick Dermody, assistant pastor of the new church, as celebrant.

All sections of California were represented at the formal dedicatory service, which marked the opening of the new parish in San Francisco and the completion of the first unit of a group of modern parish buildings that will include a model parochial school.

Those at the Service.

Among those in attendance were:
Right Reverend Monsignor P. L.
Ryan, vicar general of the archdiocese and pastor of the Star of the Sea church; Right Reverend Monsignor M. E. Connolly, pastor of St. Paul's Church; Monsignor James P. Cantrell, chancellor of the archdiocese; Reverend William P. Sullivan, pastor of St. Mary's Cathedral, and the following visitors: Fathers E. J. Doran, A. Mc-Intyre, D. O. Crowley, T. Cullen,
E. P. Dempsey, M. Ryan and P. C.
Yorke.

Rev. Thomas A. Crimmins assumed his new duties as pastor of the church with the confirmation of Archbishop Hanna. Father Crimmins for many years a curate at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer in this city.

Sermon by Archbishop.
Archbishop Hanna preached the dedication sermon. "My heart goes out to your priest and to you, my people, on the completion of this house of worship," he said. "This beautiful altar is a place of sacrifice as well as a place of worship.
The greatest need of the world today is a race of men who know what is right and with the courage to do it and the willingness to give their life's blood that the truth may prevail."

The church and the new adjoining parochial residence were erected at a cost of $100,000. Plans for all buildings are under the direction of Albert M. Caldwell, architect, and J. A. Bryant, builder.

With E. B. Collier, secretary and manager, predicting the shipment in 1924 of 650 carloads of lemons, nearly double the shipments in 1923, the Central Lemon association of Villa Park today was carrying on plans for the erection this spring of a new packing house at Orange for use in taking care of the coming crop.

Plans for the new house became known today, following the annual meeting of the organization yesterday at the packing house in Villa Park. The new plant will have a capacity of 350 carloads and will cost approximately $75,000.

The association now had 1700 acres of bearing lemons, it was shown, with 200 acres more coming into production. Collier suggested to the meeting and the directors that the membership of 390 would be divided into two associations, both to be operated under one management.

Facilities Act as Ban.

The manager also stated that more acreage and members were available to the association, but that applications could not be considered at this time because the production of the present membership was all that could be handled with present facilities.

The manager's annual report revealed that the association in 1923 shipped 353 cars of lemons, or 143,179 boxes, of which 136,017 boxes were graded fruit and 7162 were ungraded. The graded fruit returned an average of 100 pounds of $6.028 for the Gold brand, $4.
726 for the Comet brand and $2.30 for the Reflection brand, the three graded brands of the association.

Receipts in $41,000 Gain
Receipts for the year were $524, 713.02, showing a gain over last year of $41,000, although shipments this year were less than in the previous season.

The election of directors resulted in the selection of three new men and the return of two of the old board, Leon O. Whittell and W. M.
Popplewell. The others chosen were M. B. Allen, H. T. Thomson and C. H. Jeffrey.

Organizing, the board elected Popplewell president; Whittell, vice president; W. E. Williams, Santa Ana, and J. E. Porter, Orange, treasurers; E. B. Collier, secretary and manager, and L. A.
Stevenson, assistant secretary.

CROOK COMEDY-DRAMA AT PRINCESS TONIGHT
 "I never did go in for custard pie in comedy!"

So averred William Desmond, star of "The Breathless Moment," a crook-comedy drama, which comes tonight to the Princess. There are several reasons for the remark, arising out of an episode in which the star's feet and the pride of the bakeshop mingle. And Bill Desmond is still looking for revenge, if he ever finds the culprit who put that pie in his bed.

It happened during the filming of the hospital scene in the play. Desmond, playing the victim of an explosion, entered the neat cot in the hospital ward constructed on the big stage—then leaped out with a shout of mingled surprise and rage. A mass of beautiful yellow custard clung to his feet!

"BROADWAY BROKE" AT WEST END TONIGHT

When Murray W. Garsson produced "Broadway Broke" from The Saturday Evening Post story, he struck on a theme in which all the world has an interest. For, after all, Broadway is just the Main street of New York. Every town has one and they are all somewhat alike.

Satisfied with the title and the theme, Garsson learned that he had chosen in Mary Carr, the leading woman, a character whose life nearly paralleled the script. It is a fact that Mary Carr saw her name searing over Broadway, then sadly watched it grow dim and finally disappear altogether.

ENDURE HARDSHIPS TO MAKE TOM MIX THRILLER
 In "North of Hudson Bay," now

showing at the Yost theater, Tom Mix, the star, went through a chain of hardships that would daunt a Steve Brodie. William Fox, the producer of this picture, insists on absolute realism. And Mix himself was not at all averse to giving the public "the real stuff."

His chief source of trouble in this picture accrued from the cold, ice and snow of the territory where the scenes were taken. He was taken down with a severe cold two days after the first scene was "shot." In a rough travel through a terrific blizzard—not suit, not cut-up paper—bitter cold snow and sleet—he was frost-bitten about the ears and nose, while his fingers, in his own words, "belonged to the storm."

IRENE RICH AS QUEEN IN "ROSITA" AT TEMPLE

When Irene Rich as the Queen of Spain was being rehearsed in her first scene with Mary Pickford in "Rosita," now playing at the Temple theater, Director Ernst Lubitsch could not get her to emphasize her scene strongly enough.

The scene called for the Queen to remonstrate with Rosita very sternly and call her an "impudent little hussy." Miss Rich tried this scene a number of times, and when on the verge of giving it up, she explained, "How can I be rude and call Miss Pickford such names when I love her so much?"

"Ah, this scene is nothing!" exclaimed Lubitsch. "In the very next scene you slap Miss Pickford in the face!"

"Oh! do I have to do that!" said Miss Rich, turning to Miss Pickford, "Do I really have to slap you?"

"Yes! Yes! broke in Lubitsch. "You must slap her real hard, as you think she has been flirting with the King."

"Yes, Miss Rich, you must slap me," explained Miss Pickford, with a little twinkle in her eye. "And the harder you slap me the harder I will slap you in return."

The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

Let us demonstrate an "EASY" in your home on your daintiest lingerie. Convince yourself that the principle of washing clothes by means of air pressure and suction cleanses quickly and thoroughly.

The "EASY" method is simple to understand—the revolving vacuum cups move up and down sixty times per minute—on the down stroke they force the soapy water through the mesh of the garments—on the up stroke they draw the water back through the mesh. A thorough cleansing process. No rubbing, dragging, jerking, or injury to the clothes.

Easy Credit Terms A first payment is the only cash required to place an "EASY" in your own home. You may pay the balance in monthly payments to suit your convenience.

Pay Dividends to Daley's Investors

Stockholders in Daley's, Incorporated, owning a chain of grocery stores in Southern California, five of which are located in Santa Ana, are receiving greetings of the new year in the shape of dividends, according to a notice received today from President Joseph A. Daley by George R. Richardson, local manager of the Daley's stores in the Grand Central Market.

The board of directors recently declared an 8 per cent dividend on all outstanding preferred stock of the corporation, and a common stock dividend at the rate of 10 per cent, Richardson said.

The Daley's chain of stores has grown from four stores in 1916, to 127 at the close of 1923, stretching from Tustin, on the south, to Ventura, on the north, it was added.

Hardware Firm's Employees Elect

Employees of S. Hill and Son, hardware firm here, today had perfected a social organization by election of officers at a meeting held at the firm's store last night.

W. J. Ferris was elected president; Leigh Galloway, vice president; and Mrs. Leslie Everett, secretary-treasurer. The officers, with Edward Peck and Albert Zeigler, compose the executive board.

Promotion of closer social relationships among the employees is the club's object. The club, as yet unnamed, will meet once a month. Albert Hill, proprietor, addressing the thirty-four employees, predicted a big volume of business for the firm during 1924. He urged co-operation of employees in giving the very best possible service to patrons.

A. J. Crookshank, president of the First National bank, and M. D. Clark, cashier of the American National bank, both members of the American Bankers' league, will not attend a conference of national officials of the league, called for next Friday in Washington, D. C., for discussion of the Mellon plan for reduction of taxes, it became known here today.

Both bankers stated it would be impossible for them to attend the conference, but each said that he already had advised league officials that he was in favor of the plan.

"I approve the Mellon plan as a whole, but there are some features I would change if I were drafting the plan," said Crookshank.

Waldo Kelly, Fullerton, and E. W. Bollinger, Orange, are other county bankers who are officials of the league.

Tidal Wave Takes Toll of Property

PARIS, Jan. 11.—The great storm and tidal wave which ranged 650 miles, from Ireland to Northern Spain, has left a toll of millions in damage to French coast towns, scores of fishing vessels and numerous lives, according to latest reports.

The tidal wave at times reached a height of from 12 to 20 feet and the tempest which accompanied the tide was the worst since 1877. Many low lying islands were swept by the water. Nearly a hundred fishing vessels were smashed at Brest alone.

BRITISH LABOR BACKS POWER AMONG PEERS

(By United Press Leased Wire)
 LONDON, Jan. 11.—As labor government in Great Britain draws nearer day by day, the question of governmental representation in the House of Lords is arousing lengthy discussion.

In event the labor party comes into power, with Ramsey MacDonald as prime minister—and this is considered certain in the near future—it will have only one avowed representative in the upper house, the Earl of Lymerley, a socialist.

Only One Spokesman. One spokesman, labor leaders agree, would not be nearly enough and they are casting about for a plan to strengthen the party's power among the peers.

It is thought possible Lord Buckmaster, Parnoor and possibly Haldane might accept cabinet posts in a labor government if they were tendered them.

Rank and file of the laborites oppose creation of labor peers, causing leaders to discuss legislation for amending the present procedure so as to address members of either house, or answer questions in either body.

Such legislation probably would not provoke serious opposition, since both the conservative and liberal parties frequently feel handicapped at the present necessity of having a proportion of their ministers from the peers.

Girl Autoist Runs Down Man Aged 70

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Jan. 11.—Edwin Haffenden, 70, is lying near death here as the result of being run down by an automobile driven by Miss Liela Hall, young society debutante of this city and daughter of former Mayor J. W. Hall.

Haffenden was dragged 40 feet by the machine. Miss Hall declared she could not see him on account of the thickness of the fog just outside the city, where the accident occurred.

Rejects Plea For German Course in Schools of Calif.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—A request from a number of German societies in California made through M. L. Weiss of San Francisco, that the German language be taught in the elementary schools of the state, was answered in the negative by Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction.

The school laws, Wood said, require that the English language alone be taught in the elementary schools and foreign languages in the high and junior high schools.

Cuts Throats of Wife, Tots Then Takes Own Life

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Raving in a fit of violent insanity S. Kawashima, 30, Japanese, slashed the throats of his two babies and his wife and then hanged himself from the top banister of the stairs of his home here.

The babies died an hour later in the emergency hospital and the mother is expected to die momentarily.

Stocks, Bonds, and Financial News

WALL ST. JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Price movements on the stock exchange today were characterized by considerable hesitancy, reflecting the market's desire to correct its internal position following the recent extensive advance in anticipation of the extraordinary constructive developments which have come to light this week in the field of finance, business and industry.

At the top of the first increase in United States Steel's untitled offers since last March, the company's stock advanced 1/4 point to 47 1/2. The advance was the first in a week and as its logical sequence, the drop in the call money rate to the lowest levels since last September.

The market closed higher. U. S. Steel 47 1/2, up 1/4; American Can 108 1/2, up 1/4; Tobacco Products 153 1/2, up 1/4; Studebaker 17 1/2, up 1/4; Davidson Chemical 66 1/2, up 1/4; Corn Products 16 1/2, up 1/4; American Woolen 17 1/2, up 1/4; Producers & Refiners 9 1/2, up 1/4; Maryland 38 1/2, up 1/4; Pan-American B 54 1/2, up 1/4; New Haven 16 1/2, up 1/4; Southern Railway 41 1/2, up 1/4.

The bank robberies have been daring and spectacular, staged usually in broad daylight by unskilled men who got away with sums ranging from $100 to $500 before bank officials could recover from their surprise. Some of the holdups were carried out silently while there were customers in the bank, by lone bandits who gave the tellers notes threatening death if they did not hand over all the money in sight.

Blames Dope Fiends A number of causes are responsible for the prevalence of the unlawful crime wave in Los Angeles, according to Chief Deputy District Attorney Charles W. Fricke.

"Most of the bank robberies, I believe, were committed by dope-addicts, who, when they feel the call for drugs, won't stop at anything to get money to satisfy their craving," Fricke said.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—With a total of ten bank robberies in which $21,000 has been secured, over 130 other holdups and robberies, and innumerable petty felonies in the last two months, Los Angeles is experiencing the worst epidemic of crime it has ever known.

The bank robberies have been daring and spectacular, staged usually in broad daylight by unskilled men who got away with sums ranging from $100 to $500 before bank officials could recover from their surprise. Some of the holdups were carried out silently while there were customers in the bank, by lone bandits who gave the tellers notes threatening death if they did not hand over all the money in sight.

Practical Notes On S. S. Lesson

LESSON FOR JAN. 13. GEN. 47:
1-12. THE LONG SOJOURN
IN EGYPT

"Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren . . . are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen."—v. 1. It is frequently said of this man or of that one, "He could not stand prosperity." When he no longer had to toil and drudge for his daily bread, the man gave loose rein to his passions and became a victim of bad habits; or he treated others with discourtesy and contempt; or he went further than this, and was intolerant and insolent, proud and haughty in his demeanor.

Every circumstance and condition to which one may be exposed in life, no matter when or where, brings with it a different temptation to wrongdoing, as well as a different incentive and opportunity to do what is right. The man who meets the shock of adversity's trials may yield to the blandishments and sophistries of prosperity's ingenious and insidious instigations to commit evil. One never knows just what he will do, under any hypothesized condition, till he is put to the test.

Peter was absolutely sure that he would not deny his Master—but he did! Great prosperity and fame had come to Joseph. He was prime minister of Egypt, one of the greatest nations—if indeed not the greatest—of his time. And yet he was superior to all that had come to reward him for his fidelity. In nothing that he did is there more strikingly seen than in his attitude towards his brothers who had sold him into slavery.

"Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh."—v. 7. One of the finest tests of a son's character, when he comes into affluent circumstances, is his treatment of an indigent father.

Judged by what is all too common, after Joseph was raised to the position of prime minister, it would have been an easy thing for him to fail in his duty towards his father and at the same time vindicate himself for his neglect. He might have reasoned: "During the years of our enforced separation, father and I have unconsciously, but inevitably drawn apart, till there is no longer anything in common between us. Father has always been interested in flocks and herds, in grazing grounds, and in springs of water for his cattle and sheep. I used to have, when a lad, because I was brought up to know nothing else, a similar interest. But such things I have long since outgrown."

"After the novelty of meeting father, and discussing the family history for the last twenty years or so, since I have been away, and inquiring about some of the old neighbors whom I recall, and out of courtesy to him, asking how profitable or otherwise the 'stock business' was before the famine—after a few hours of such conversation I feel sure that father and I would find but little that would be of mutual interest."

"Father is not only old, and provincial in his manner of thinking, but his habits are so different from mine, and as fixed as the framework of his old body. I could get along with him, if I were to have him come, by ignoring much that he would do and say, but my wife and our two boys would not be as tolerant as I of his 'foreign ways'."

"Then father, being of the shepherd class, and of the lowest caste in the eyes of all Egyptians—well, I am not sure what Mrs. Joseph would think of me, when she learned that she had married a low caste foreigner! And how would I be estimated in the eyes of her father, and of Pharaoh? And if father knew that I had married the daughter of a heathen priest, it would be a source of great unhappiness to him."

"I am sorry for father, to be sure. The famine must be very bad indeed, if his sons have to come so far to get a supply of food. Seeing that I am so fortunate as to have an abundance of everything at my command, it is my duty to provide for father till the land where he lives is again productive. But that I will do innocently. I will see that he is made comfortable where he is."

How easily and self-justifiably Joseph could have acted in some such way as this. And had he done so, many now would be ready to say that "he did a good part by the old man!" On the contrary, Joseph was most considerate and attentive towards his father. He was proud of the opportunity to introduce him to Pharaoh. And he continued to do all that was within his power to make his father's last years the happiest of his life.

Plan For East Bay Reservoir Offered
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Plans for construction of a $3,000,000 reservoir with a maximum capacity of more than 16,000,000,000 gallons of water, were proposed by George H. Wilhelm, vice-president and general manager of the East Bay Water company, at the first hearing on the upper San Leandro project before the state railroad commission. According to the proposal, the construction of an earthen dam, 185 feet high, and a tunnel to carry the water fifteen miles through the Oakland hills, if started this spring, will be completed in 1926.

"The growth of east bay communities will be stifled," said Edwin O. Edgerton, president of the East Bay Water company, in a statement to the commission, "unless an additional water supply is made available before 1926. East Bay Water company is willing to go forward with the proposed development if authorized by the Railroad commission and provided no insurmountable obstacles are thrown in the way."

SHOP'S SERVICE SELLS AUTOS, EXPERT SAYS

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Selling of new automobiles among intelligent old-time buyers is influenced more largely today by service station performance on the old car than ever before, according to Percy Chamberlain of the P. E. Chamberlain Associates, Inc., Detroit, who spoke at the first New York show convention of the National Automobile Dealers' association at Hotel Commodore.

No dealer and no dealer employee can afford an "Argument with the customer," for even though "you win the argument, you lose the customer," Chamberlain told the assembled dealers of the East. Free service has cost the automobile trade millions of dollars, the speaker declared, and money which should have been placed into the dealers' maintenance department to provide adequate maintenance facilities has not been placed there because the dealer gave that money away piece-meal in satisfying demands of hundreds of his owners for free maintenance that the owner, himself, should have provided for.

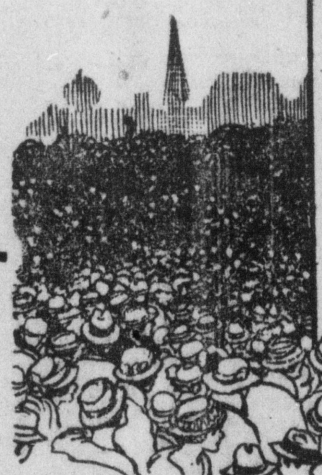

Dealers are confronted with the necessity of bringing about greater co-operation within their own business, Chamberlain declared. A dealer is not organized to properly service his customers when there is friction between the shop department and the parts department or the shop and the sales department. A sales organization that admits that its service station is "rotten" is in effect declaring to the public "come in and buy our new car and get some of this rotten service," he said.

Chamberlain pleaded for cleaner shops and high class service salesmen, stressing the belief that while automobile dealer service on the whole is performed excellently, it has been poorly sold to the customer after performed with the result that much of the advantage of excellent workmanship has been lost to the dealer because the customer was dissatisfied with the delivery.

The human body generates enough heat during the day to melt 44 pounds of ice and raise the liquid to boiling point. It has been proven possible for a patient's heart beats to be transmitted by radio to a physician many miles away.
